

Happy Birthday, William!

Tourism Guide and Entrepreneur William Bwambale is celebrating his birthday on Dec. 22nd. In honor of that special occasion, William has decided he wants to give something back to the community in western Uganda which he loves. His goal is to plant 3000 trees in the downtown of Kasese, located in the very heart of the tourist region of this eastern African country. The project has received enthusiastic response from the local government and the community. But to make it happen, William needs your help!

3 Gifts to Choose From for Planting Trees!

- ▶ $20 GIFT—Total of 45 trees. Includes 30 acacia, 10 jackfruit and five umbrella trees.
- ▶ $50 GIFT—A total of 135 trees, This package includes 100 acacia, 25 jackfruit and 10 umbrella trees
- ▶ 100 GIFT—270 trees! This will include 200 acacia trees, 50 jackfruit trees along with 20 umbrella trees.

The above will be used for purchase of trees from the forestry department of the Government of Uganda. William has a team of volunteers that stand ready to plant and care for the trees in downtown Kasese.

These trees will help to provide shade and beauty for the city of Kasese. It will reduce the dust as well as to make the city more attractive for visitors.

Can you help William to beautify his city of Kasese, Uganda?
